(Unofficial Minutes)

August 9, 2018

The August Parish Council Meeting was called to order by President Jenny Schmidt at 8:10 pm, and the council began in prayer. The minutes from the previous meeting were read by Trisha Sohm, approved by Sue Hampton, and seconded by Blake Connelly.

COMMISSION REPORTS:

Property: 3 members met. The safe at the church has been replaced. The committee got a quote from Luminous Neon of $115 to update the mass times on the signs.

Church & Community Affairs: 3 members met. The committee decided to have the Soup Supper on October 21st, they will contact Rosann Tasset to make sure this date is available. The committee will be buying 2 more roasters for the soup supper, since we did not have enough roasters last year. The committee also updated the guild list with updated phone numbers. They will put the updated guild list on the website and copies will be put in the back of church.

Faith Formation: 3 members met. On September 16th at 9:00 the Faith Formation will serve Breakfast casserole and orange juice. Adoration times may change to 12 hours every Sunday or may just go to once a month. Discussion is still open and Father will have the final say.

Finance: 3 members met. 3 members of the finance committee met with the representatives from Hanston and Jetmore to decide on what expenses needed to be paid since Father John will be saying mass in Spearville, Jetmore and Hanston. Everyone was pleased how things went, they will revisit the finances/expenses in January. The committee went over a broad view of gains and losses over the last year.
