YOUTH COMMISSION ENCOURAGES: the 5th, 6th graders (2009-2010 school year) to attend a Catholic Church camp this summer. There will be partial scholarship assistance for those attending. Please notify any member of the Youth Commission of your intent to participate. The following camp is listed in the “Youth” section of the Dodge City Diocese website: <http://www.dcdiocese.org/youth>.

Summer Camp 2010 by Steven Polley:

Fifth and sixth graders, your turn comes June 21-24. Just think four days at Camp Lakeside, north of Scott City. Four days of fun, four days with friends and time to find yourself more fully embraced by God’s presence, and four days to understand more clearly what it means to be proud of your Catholic faith. During camp you will experience hiking, swimming, canoeing, camp fires and many more fun activities incorporated into a journey of faith through the Corporal Works of Mercy. But, most of all, you will have an experience that will be the highlight of your summer. Here we go — summer fun just around the corner. I will see you at Camp Lakeside and “Tough Enough To Be Catholic?”

COMPANION CAMP 2010: held June 18-20, at Conception Seminary College, is a camp for boys entering 6th, 7th, and 8th grades. Learn more about your Catholic faith, take part in fun recreational activities and meet other kids, seminarians, priests and monks. Cost is $100. For more information and for free transportation, contact Becky Hessman at 620.227.1530 by June 14.
