amount to report; however, I can say that it took people of all ages more than a day to pack stuff up and haul it to Dodge City. And every time I saw Deacon Dwaine for 2 weeks, he would tell me that he received more checks and cash with which to purchase more food. Your generosity will help thousands of people through the winter. Thank you.

COOKIES FOR VIGILS: If there is anyone within our parish who would like to help with baking cookies for funeral vigils, please contact one of the members of our Church and community Affairs committee. All help would be greatly appreciated as there are times when we do not have time to bake before a vigil. Thank you.

FAMILY FORMATION: The next Family Formation will happen on November 20. We will watch the second part of our study on the Book of Acts because we still haven't found the series on the Book of Revelation. By the way, if someone "accidentally-on-purpose" borrowed the Revelation series, we would like to finish it at some point. If it is returned, no questions will be asked. No lawyers will call. Really, we won't even laugh at you...maybe.
