DAY OF PRAYER: Every day men and women have multiple opportunities to choose life or death. Every day nearly 4,000 children in the United States die because someone chooses that they be aborted. Tuesday is a national day of prayer to end abortion. Even though there is no communal time of prayer scheduled, I want to encourage everyone to offer a bit of self-sacrifice and prayer for those affected by abortion. Let us join other Christians throughout the nation praying for healing and conversion, for an acceptance of the culture of life rather than the culture of death.
