GOODBYE FROM FR. TED: Sincere thanks to everyone! I needed Spearville at this time in my life and God knew it. These last 7 years have been the stability that allowed me to continue with priesthood. Not only did I learn how to be a pastor (for the most part), I was also reminded what it is to be a beloved son again. I am blessed for having known each of you. Thank you! There seems to be some on-going confusion about Dug. Dug will stay with F.O.D. (Friends of Dug) for about a month and then he will live with me in Great Bend. Remember what the wise, old prophet Fr. Jack Maes once said, “In the house of Great Bend there are many rooms. If it were not so, then how come I said that I was going away to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and put you in the pickup and take you to Great Bend, so that where I am you also may be...”

PARISH MEETINGS: Thursday, July 11, 7 p.m. commissions and 8 p.m. council. Let’s see... I should have had a list out to you by now to show who the new members are...I’ve got it somewhere on this desk... It’s about half full... Oh Well, it’s not like I’m pastor anymore... I’ll get it to you sometime.

CATECHIST FORMATION FALL: September Sessions “Let Prayer Teach” Presenters: Bishop Emeritus Gilmore and Coleen Stein. The single most important factor in the lives of a catechist and their children and teens is their relationship with God. One name we give that relationship is prayer. Some communication happens quite naturally, a young child will learn communication skills by watching and listening to others. But other communication skills need to be taught, like reading and writing. The same can be said for prayer. Yet, what we need more than anything else is not textbooks, but text-people. That’s what a catechist is. Pope Paul VI called them witnesses. “Let Prayer Teach” offers help to the catechist so s/he can help their students grow in prayer...that is not just teaching prayers. “If you want a life of prayer, the way to get it is by praying.” Thomas Merton Wednesday, Sept. 4 - 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 7 - 9 a.m. to 12 noon Sunday, Sept. 8 - 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. (Spanish)
