to come to the Our Lady of Guadalupe Faith and Light Community Celebration on Sunday, Feb. 17, from 3-6 p.m., in the Holy Family Room at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe. FAITH AND LIGHT is a movement that supports persons with developmental disabilities, their families and friends. FAITH AND LIGHT meets regularly, once a month to create bonds which deepen through common hopes and difficulties and the sharing of prayer, joyous times, the Eucharist and other celebrations. It was born in a Roman Catholic context out of a desire to belong and out of the pain of rejection. It is growing worldwide through the hope that it awakens among those who experience its dynamic spirituality. It is open to all faiths. Please call Edie Loughmiller at 225-1072 or Dwaine or Louise Lampe at 385-2447 if you have any questions.
